Hi Heather and Jamie,

I am sorry to be one of "those" presenters, late with my materials. I was unable to make the test run last week, but I'm familiar with teams so hopefully no hiccups will occur. My only real question is will I share my screen when presenting or will you retain control?

Attached is my PPT in PDF for you.

Thanks and sorry for the delay,

- Kathy

Sorry, here you go and thanks for pestering me!

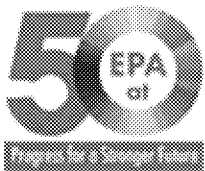

Kathy Hurl is an environmental protection specialist with the Environmental Protection Agency in Washington, DC. Her nearly 30 years' experience working on ocean, coastal, wetland, agroforestry and other environmental issues, has taken her throughout the U.S. and internationally as she worked on both the local and international level. Currently, Kathy is the EPA's staff lead on Clean Water Act Section 404(g) and works to assist states and tribes pursuing assumption of the program. She is co-leading the revision of the assumption regulations with Ms. Ruth Chemerys. Kathy has a BS in biology from Hope College and a Masters in Public Administration from American University.

Hi Kathy,
This is just a reminder that bios are due as soon as possible.

Thanks
Heather
